1. RESEARCHES & PUBLICATIONS LEAD BY DR SUPARNA GANGULY , Sr Faculty Member-

Name of Research	Exploring the Relationship between Education & Women Empowerment & Gender Justice : A Comparative Analysis between West Bengal , Kerala & Mizoram By Dr. Suparna Ganguly
Summary of research activities	This paper tries to examine how far Gender Justice has been established in India after 75 years of its Independence and what is the contribution of Education as well as literacy behind it. For this three states namely Kerala, Mizoram & West Bengal have been chosen for examination. Gender Justice is nothing but a correlation of social, economic, political, environmental, cultural and educational factors, these preconditions need to be satisfied for achieving gender justice. This paper shows that Education is considered as an important indicator of women emancipation and establishing gender justice but this study reflects that reality is different.
Name of Case study	1) A Case Study on Voice of Women 2) A Case Study on Child Protection: Intervention of Corporate & Police
Summary of Case Studies	1) A Case Study on Voice of Women --- This Case study tries to capture 10 women leaders , elected as Office bearers of Panchayati Raj Institution and their contribution towards community. In fact, this case study has elucidated ten cases of ten women leaders at different class, caste and life- struggle with same goal of women emancipation.
	2) A Case Study on Child Protection: Intervention of Corporate & Police --- this case study tries to capture the condition of child labour and sexual exploitation of children, mainly of the girl child in Haldia block of Purba Medinipur . It has captured a programme named “UNMESH” which is a process to aware the children , to monitor the children for their protection.
